

Topic: Dragons

Dragons are mythical creatures, however, there are some dragons in nature. Research and write a fact file about one of the following: Komodo Dragons, Bearded Dragons, a Blue Dragon Sea Slug, a Pink Dragon Millipede, a Black Dragonfish or a Flying Dragon (lizard). Present your work in an interesting and colourful way.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p011mrlx>

Watch the poem 'The Dragon Who Ate Our School' by Nick Toczek'.

Create your own dragon themed poem.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=H0kbMpQ5Qc4>

Junior Dragons' Den - BBC Children in Need

Watch Dragon's Den. Come up with your own idea to pitch to the millionaires.

There are many different types of mythical dragons. Design a dragon in your book first, then... create it. You could use junk materials, polymer clay, fabric etc.

We all know the story of George and the Dragon. Can you retell it (in your own words) and create a series of puppets to go with it.

You found a baby dragon on your way to school. You had no choice but to take it to school!
Write a story or diary entry about your school adventures.
- Don't forget to include a description of your dragon.

Find about the history surrounding Chinese Dragons.
Create a Power Point.

There are many different types of dragons in Harry Potter. Find out about them and create your own set of Top Trumps / Pokémon style cards.

Free Choice box.