TRUSTWORTHINESS

Once all the children have started Reception classes, they will be added to the list.

1 St John Fisher	Edhen Paul - Trustworthiness -Edhen sets a wonderful example by listening carefully, using great manners and putting incredible effort into his work especially in RE this week.
1 St Margaret Clitherow	David Motpan-Trustworthiness - David has made an excellent start to year 1 showing respect to his classmates, his teachers and the equipment in the classroom. He is helpful, polite and is an excellent role model for others.
2 St Augustine	Katie Mukamolas-Courage -for settling in to Year 2 amazingly and putting your hand up.
2 St Ursula	Matilda Brodigan- Enjoyment - she has enjoyed her first week back at school by participating fully in lessons. She has been keen to contribute to class discussions, share her ideas and answer questions. Well done Matilda!
3 St Thomas Becket	Darcie Rickwood- Resilience - for showing Resilience. She was getting muddled when thinking about the place value of 3D numbers, but kept going and got there in the end.
3 St Cedd	Xavier Carvalho-Courage — for showing courage by standing in front of your peers and giving a speech.
4 St Bede	Curtis Tudor-Resilience -he has settled in to Year 4 brilliantly, he has taken new routines and new learning in his stride. He has demonstrated a positive attitude and has worked hard this week. Well done!
4 St Swithun	Bella Mica -Trustworthiness - Bella has been focused, hardworking and making all the right choices. What a fantastic start to the year!
5 St Columba	Lucas Russell-Courage -for showing real courage in class, tackling new learning and a new learning environment - well done Lucas for showing a great attitude this week.
5 St Alban	Frank Pinnington-Resilience -for showing fantastic resilience in his learning. He has worked incredibly hard, stayed motivated and has been resourceful too. What a star, well done!
6 St Anne Line	Joseph Adebayoquadri-Service -for showing love for others by guiding and helping younger members of the school, and for being a good roll model.
6 St Osyth	Cynthia Slotwinska-Courage -Cynthia has really shown a lot of courage this week by putting up her hand and answering questions. She is approaching challenges and her work with a fantastic attitude. Well done Cynthia!
Inclusion Award	Lincoln Chowa-3 St Cedd-Trustworthiness -for adapting really well to new changes, playing beautifully with his friends and really good listening.
SLT Award	Joshua Wheeler-3 St Cedd-Courage -for giving a speech for School Council.
